

Rachael Wilkins Ministry Hosting Packet

About

Rachael has been referred to as a “psalmist of peace.” She is a worshiper/songwriter who knows first hand that healing and restoration can come through sacrificial worship from a place of brokenness. Her heart is to create a transformational atmosphere of intimate worship that first ministers to the heart of God and second facilitates true shalom and healing for others.

“As we gather together in the secret place, my prayer for you is that you will encounter Jesus in a tangible and intimate way. He is worthy of every passion, every pursuit, every praise.” ~ Rachael

What is the cost to host Rachael?

There is not a set fee to host Rachael. She ministers on a love offering basis.

What about travel?

If travel is necessary, we simply ask that travel expenses be covered and a love offering be received. When traveling, Rachael prefers to have her husband or another ministry partner/intercessor with her.

What kind of equipment is needed?

Equipment needs vary depending on the size of the venue/event.

- Smaller to mid-size gatherings: We can provide most, if not all, the needed equipment.
- Larger settings: The host ministry needs to provide an adequate sound system. We can bring mics, stands and cables.
- If travel is by plane: The host ministry needs to provide an adequate sound system, including a keyboard, mics, a boom stand and cables.

What are the expectations for host ministries?

- Prayer & intercession prior to the gathering/event
- Travel expenses (if applicable): airfare (if needed), lodging and meals. For privacy and rest purposes, Rachael prefers hotel accommodations when possible. Breakfast can be what is provided by the hotel if available.
- Available water prior to and during the gathering/event
- Love offering
